Did the Mason family take up land
at Fallbrook?

I would be interested to know if your society could augment information we have of ancestors who settled in the district in the mid 19th Century. Two families who inter-married were migrants from Ireland. (Supperary)

Mason Richard b 1810 son of Peter Mason & Grace (agricultural labourers)
m. Jane Armitage. ~~left~~ Left Ireland with 4 children, sailing on the 'Woodlodge' from Cork, arriving 10.3.1842
They were "bounty immigrants" contracted to work in Bathurst. The youngest child died shortly after arrival and Charlotte was born 17th July 1842. (my grandmother)
Not long afterwards they moved to Emu
Creek in the Hunter Valley.

Charlotte's Baptism Certificate [C of E]
No 2719 (Vol 28) gives further particulars

Baptised 17th Nov 1844 in Parish of Whittingham in County Northumberland N.S.W.

Abode is listed as JOHNSON'S STOCKYARD
STATION

FATHER'S OCCUPATION - SHEPHERD.

Richard was killed as a result of a fall from a horse in 1863<sup>o</sup> was buried near the church at FALBROOK.
