

Dear Kitty,

(signed affectionate sister Mary Lowry.)

Although dear Phillip has said all that can be said, I cannot allow it to be sent without adding a few lines. I wish to request you will write as soon as you can and let us know all about your family and how you are getting on. We were glad to find out by dear Edmund's letter that he has been so progressing in all his undertakings I hope he will give his heart to God. How frequently you are on my mind you have been the burden of my prayers. I feel assured you have found the Lord has been your refuge and strength a present help

Husband escaped to the rest prepared for his people from stressful times visiting in the same place have Mr Brown still with me and sometimes I had had an additional but Mr B has been the standby you have no doubt been informed of dear Henry's death. His illness was rather short we have all felt his loss very much

Mrs Lowry is carrying on the business with the assistance of one of her sons and a journeyman She has 9 children 6 sons and 3 daughters. They are good children. The third son is to do

bread her and likely the eldest is in

I have just filled up the page. Believe me to be Your affectionate sister Mary Lowry.