Dear Ross & Phyllis
I got receipt for £8-0-0 alright. As there was nothing on the receipt found to indicate that you lived in A.C.T.
I played safe with my long winded recisionist solicitor with the duty stamp.
I am glad your cough is better Ross.
You don't often get a smoker's cough from a pipe especially from a Peterson pipe which is a drag, smoke to the last puff.
They cost about £3-4, but last for years.
The bent pipe is far more satisfactory than the straight stem.
We had a call from your Stuart yesterday and appreciated his considerateness muchly I hope they arrived safe & sound & Can. City I am also enclosing a worthy confidential letter for your perusal as all our 5 children have their own separate worlds I think it wiser for mother "we are" joint tenants in the ownership of this property which means that if one goes, his or her share goes to the survivor automatically without waiting for appointment of Executor or executrix & without no asking for any further legal routine - I hope to mooch on for long years.
all the same
Love Father
