

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

PROBATE JURISDICTION.

In the will of Eliza Lucie Whitten, late of Quirindi, in the State of New South Wales, spinster, deceased.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the Wills, Probate and Administration Act, 1898, and of the Trustee Act, 1925: Notice is hereby given that all creditors and other persons having any claim or demand upon or against the estate or otherwise interested in the property and assets of the abovenamed deceased, who died at Sydney, on the 13th day of April, 1937, and probate of whose will was granted by the Supreme Court of New South Wales, in its Probate Jurisdiction, on the 31st day of May, 1937, to Anthony Whitten, of Quirindi, are hereby required to send, on or before the 30th day of September, 1937, full particulars of their claims and demands upon the said estate or in respect of the said property and assets or any part thereof to Anthony Whitten, care of Messrs.

Thomas and Hague, solicitors, Henry-street, Quirindi, at the expiration of which time the said Anthony Whitten, as executor of the will of the said deceased intends to proceed to administer the said estate and to convey and distribute the property and assets of the said deceased to and among the parties and persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims and demands of which he shall then have notice; and the said Anthony Whitten will not, in respect of the property and assets or any part thereof so conveyed or distributed, be liable to any person of whose claim he shall not have had notice at the time of such conveyance or distribution.—Dated this 30th day of July, 1937.
